Lesson 11 (Poor George)

Ques 1 Why did George dislike school? Give a reason to support your answer.

Ans George hated school because studying related to school did not interest him.

Ques 2 How was George different from his older sister, Jill?

Ans George's sister, Jill found studying easy and memorised all her lessons. All the teachers called her 'a lovely girl' and a wonderful student. In contrast to Jill, George found his difficult.

Ques 3 What was Mrs. Gremma's reaction after seeing George's doodling?

Ans Mrs. Gremma caught George doodling. She took away his drawings and firmly asked him to meet her after class. However, instead of punishing him, Mrs. Gremma appointed George in charge of the scenery art work and staging for the Easter show.

Ques 4 Do you like Mrs. Gremma? What kind of a teacher was she? Give details from the text to support your answer.

Ans Yes, I like Mrs. Gremma. She was a positive, helpful and encouraging teacher. She recognised George's talent and instead of punishing him for doodling during her class, she put him in charge of the scenery, artwork.

and staging of the Easter show. Once work was done she appreciated George and told him that she had never seen a more beautiful and authentic stage.

Think and answer.

Ques 1 Why do you think Mrs. Grema asked George to be in charge of all the artwork and staging?

Ans Mrs. Grema recognised George's talent when she caught him doodling. She saw that George was an artist and that his talent would be best utilised in the Easter show.

Ques 2 Then, he heard clapping. They were clapping for George. How did George feel? Support your answer with reference to the text.

Ans George felt pleased to hear every one clapping for him. It was a wonderful experience for him. The appreciation of his classmates and teachers made George feel like a part of the class.

Ques 'Poor George'. He did try. Do you agree?

Ans Yes, George did try to study but studying did not come easily to him. He was not academically talented. Instead of studying, he wanted to spend time playing baseball.
